

Choose one novel  from this list which features the theme “Human Ingenuity” from our ELA core curriculum- Unit 1. Then follow the directions on the opposite side of this sheet.

Hip Hop School- Alan Lawrence Sitomer

& Airborn by Kenneth Opel

++Keeper- Mal Peet

& Cinder by Marissa Meyer

The Hoopster- Alan Lawrence Sitomer

A Moment Comes by Jennifer Bradbury

+++The Book Thief- by Markus Zusak

& Monster by Walter Dean Myers

++Goddess of Yesterday by Caroline B. Cooney

A Tree Grows in Brooklyn by Betty Smith

++ ebook available in Jordan High School media center online

& Audio book available in JHS media center online

* DISCLAIMER Just as the Children’s Literature Association of Utah does not necessarily recommend that all children read all books, we suggest that parents consult reviews of books for mature themes, offensive language, etc. These books offer a variety of subject matter and interest for students. We encourage parents to read and discuss books and choices with their children. *These novels are on Canyons School District’s approved book list.

For reviews of these books we suggest the following websites as Amazon.com or Goodreads do not always provide enough information about the content in a novel:

<https://www.common sense media.org/book-reviews>

<http://ratedreads.com/>

<http://www.compassbookratings.com/>

<http://novelbookratings.com/>